On The Hill.

On the third Lord's Day, in January, Bro. J. W. Head will preach at Lebanon Church. Subject: "Recognition of Saints."

Miss Corda Adams, Miss Shirley, Mr. Graves and Mr. Bohannon, of Jacksonville, were the guests of Miss Eva Cain and Miss Cora Martin last Sunday.

Mr. Dinkle, of Harp, is old enough to marry now, as he was seen last Sunday On The Hill walking with a cain (cain). Just keep a walking Mr. Dinkle, perhaps you will meet with The Meddlesome Girl.

Mr. Austin is not half so crazy as reported. But he actually has a mania for marling. We think he has courage enough to keep trying. We heard that he had excellent luck on his last bird hunt. That's right, Mr. Austin, if you don't have the good luck to secure the prize at the first trial, just remember that patience and perseverance overcome mountains. But we will assure you that there is no such obstacles in your way as mountains.

Mr. John Moore, of Benson, had business of importance up here last Sunday. Another bird hunter, I suppose.

Let's turn over a new leaf at the beginning of the new year.
THE MEDDLESOME GIRL.

The laws of health are taught in the schools, but not in a way to be of much practical benefit and are never illustrated by living examples, which in many cases might easily be done. If some scholar who had just contracted a cold was brought before the school, so that all could hear the dry, loud cough and know its significance, and the thin white coating on the tongue and later, as the cold developed, see the profuse watery expectoration and thin watery discharge from the nose, not one of them would ever forget what the first symptoms of a cold were. The scholar should then be given Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely, that all might see that even a severe cold could be cured in one or two days, or at least greatly mitigated, when properly treated as soon as the first symptoms appear. This remedy is famous for its cures of coughs, colds and croup. It is made especially for the treatment of these and is the most prompt and most reliable medicine known for the purpose. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m

Between The Pikes.

Hurrah, Christmas is here! Wonder if we will get to go to all the parties? Hope so.

Mr. Warren Pulliam was preparing to put a roof on his chimney; his idea for so doing being to prevent Santa Claus from invading his sanctuary. Had he done so he would have missed all those nice toys.

Died—Mrs. Belle Hulet, wife of James J. Hulet, of consumption. Patiently she bore her suffering and to never heed to murmur or complain, but seemed always calm, and when the summons came it found her ready to answer the Master's call and she sweetly sank to sleep in the dawn of that beautiful morn, where a robe and crown has long been prepared.

Mr. G. L. Mitchell is our boss athlete, but while attempting to turn a summersault he dislocated his shoulder and coat sleeve, and has since been unable to entertain us.

Among the Colored Citizens.

Miss Mary Wilson, who is attending school in Lexington, is spending the holidays with her parents in the city.

The Capital City Lodge and the Industrial Legion have given notice that they will give an entertainment at an early date.

A new club will be organized next month.

Miss Sophi Rickman is one of the City School teachers who are spending the holidays at their homes.

The Rev. Mr. Credit has given much satisfaction to the members of his congregation, the First Independent Baptist Church.

Miss Katie Washburne has been on the sick list.

The Powder Horn Club, in their elegant costumes, attended an entertainment at Lexington this week.

Some of the members of the Hyperion Club were in Lexington this week.

The Hyperion Club is a prosperous one. The best people of the city are members of it, and everything they have undertaken has proven a success.

As the Merry Christmas and New Year Bells die out, the wedding bells will take up the cheerful sound. One of Frankfort's most popular daughters, Miss Susie Ellis, will be led to the hymenal altar by Mr. Gaines, of Midway, on the 8th day of January, 1891. The many friends of the young couple hope the New Year may be a blissful one to both.

Miss Meed left Wednesday for Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Adams will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, in Louisville.

There was one club entertainment here this week. The others were being entertained in different cities in the State.

Mr. James Woodridge is on the sick list this week.

The committee from the Industrial Legion have selected Messrs. John Hays and Edward Lane to deliver an address on Old Fellowship on the first Wednesday night in January. Our people should not fail to attend, as Capital City Lodge will also have speakers present.

The writer has been sick for some time past, which is the reason his items have failed to show up as usual. He is now at his post again, and all items for this column can be left as before.

Not This Year.

Some of the little children who know all about Santa Claus; his miniature sleigh and his tiny reindeer never saw a Christmas with snow. If this thing goes on the picture books will have to change Old St. Nick's method of traveling over the country.—Georgetown Times.

An Open Letter.

SKANATELES FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 14, 190.

Messrs. Kenyon & Thomas—Please send me as before your dozen of your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. Since so many have had lagrippe and pneumonia I have had great success with the Ointment. I saved the life of one man with the Household Ointment. He had pneumonia; his lungs were filled up; the doctor said he could not live; he then sent and told me; I at once went with my wife to see the man, taken with me two large boxes of the Ointment. I first gave him a dose internally, then applied it to his chest, covering him with hot flannels. In less than half an hour he began to throw up matter from his lungs. I kept giving him some every half hour. The next morning he could breathe freely. He is now about well and will be at work next week. Truly yours,

Wm. S. Hale, Supt. of the Weeks Manufacturing Co. This wonderful medicine is sold at South Side drug store. 5 P. H. CARPENTER.

Council Proceedings.

ADJOURNED MEETING.

TUESDAY, Dec. 23, 1890. Present—President Smith, Councilmen Buckley, Haly, Milam, Mangum, Tobin, Wakefield and Williams. Absent—Councilman Miles.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Several communications were received from the Mayor. One announcing his approval of the ordinance repealing the cigarette ordinance passed last January. A second one approving the ordinance allowing the clerk $75 per year additional as clerk of the fire and police commission.

A third one voting the cigarette ordinance passed at a recent meeting.

The vote was then taken on the cigarette ordinance, the veto of the Mayor to the contrary. Yeas, 5; nays, 3.

General D. W. Lindsey appeared before the council and asked that the Water Company be allowed to place another pipe on the bridge, in order to guard against any accident. Granting occurred to the one already on said structure. The council granted the permission to place said pipe under the same conditions as the one now on the bridge.

The petition of Mr. John E. Glenn, asking permission to build a frame house on his lot on Arlington Heights. Granted.

Messrs. J. W. Gault and H. R. Williams conveyed by deed to the city a certain tract of ground on the South Side.

An ordinance was passed to allow the small boys the privilege of shooting crackers Christmas day.

The committee on gas reported in favor of two lamp posts in the West End.

The finance committee were instructed to make arrangements for the payment of the interest on the Water and Sewer bonds, due January 1.

Mr. Buckley moved that the street committee be instructed to advertise for bids for street repairs, ordered at a former meeting of the council. Adopted.

The matter in relation to the bond of the Capital City Lodge was referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Milam moved that finance committee be authorized to receive bids for the publication of 500 copies of the ordinances. Adopted.

The council then adjourned until next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Nervous Prostration

Is a disease rapidly on the increase in America, where everything is going at high pressure night and day. Men young in years are constantly breaking down from over-work. Everybody needs a reliable nerve tonic, something pure and pleasant. Such a remedy is found in Dr. Hale's Household Tea, a purely vegetable medicine, the great Nerve Tonic. It restores nerve power and vigor as nothing else can. Has cured St. Vitus Dance of years standing. Acts directly upon the nerve centres, imparting health and strength. Try the great new remedy; 50c per package at South Side drug store. 5 P. H. CARPENTER.

Kentucky boasts of her pretty women, fine horses, blue grass, and her celebrated Gentry's magic chicken cholera cure, which is sold on the "no cure, no pay" plan, by Phil. Carpenter.

WE CAN AND DO

Guarantee Dr. Acker's Blood Elixir, for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other preparations for blood diseases. It is a positive cure for syphilis, poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Eruptions. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution. 9 J. W. GAYLE, Druggist.

His Address Wanted.

Can anyone furnish us with the address of Prof. W. W. Wash, who was raised near this city. It is thought that he taught for a time in a college at Lexington, Missouri, but left there and went to California. Anyone knowing of his present location would confer a favor by leaving his address at this office.

Damaged Train.

The C. & O. train due here Thursday evening did not arrive until about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and was in a rather battered and damaged condition. Most of the glass being broken out of the windows of the cars by the branches of trees on the roadside, weighted down with ice, coming in contact with them.

Christmas Gifts.

The clerks, postmen and others, connected with the post-office, surprised Postmaster Jas. M. Saffell and Assistant Postmaster Chas. W. Saffell, on Wednesday morning by presenting the former with an elegant gold-headed cane and the latter with a fine silk smoking jacket. Mr. Harry Rogers was the spokesman for the boys, and in presenting the cane to Postmaster Saffell, said:

MR. SAFFELL: Representing the employees of the post-office in Frankfort, I am commissioned by them to present you with this cane as a slight testimonial of their appreciation of you as a public official and personal friend. This hallowed season, when peace and good will every where reigns, makes it particularly appropriate that we should, in some way, attest our sense of your uniform kindness and courtesies to each one of us. Be pleased to accept it, my dear sir, in the same spirit we tender it with a wish that it may be many years before you will need its assistance in life's journey; but may it ever be near to assure you of our highest esteem and sincere friendship for you as long as life shall last.

Mr. Saffell was too much surprised to do more than thank the boys, but will prepare his remarks later and publish them in pamphlet form. The cane is a beautiful ebony one, and the head is very heavy, handsomely decorated, and bears the following inscription:

James M. Saffell, P. M.

Presented by

The Employees of the Frankfort

Post-office,

December 25, 1890.

The employees of the Hermitage Cooper Shop presented Mr. Hiram Berry with a handsome silver pitcher Wednesday afternoon. Mr. C. A. Nelson, foreman of the shop, made the presentation speech, and Mr. Berry responded in a very feeling manner.

Capt. W. G. Thompson was handsomely remembered by the members of the Johnson Guards and other friends, on Thursday morning.

And last but not least, we are wealthy; we wear diamonds. The Roundabout, Bindery and Journal fore, God bless them—the best people in the world—remembered the old man with a handsome diamond scarf pin. Miss Maggie Griffin, of the Bindery, made the presentation speech, and, as usual, caught us when we were least suspecting it, and, of course, we were like the little boy the hen ran over: had nothing to say. May the kind wishes which prompted the gift never grow dim while the handsome little stone continues to sparkle.

Recommended as the Best.

St. Francis, Wis. Oct. 18, 1890.
I suffered from temporary sleeplessness for over two years, for which I used Foster's Kidney Tonic, and can recommend it as the best medicine for similar troubles.

F. BOENROSE.

A member of my congregation used Foster's Kidney Tonic with good results. The patient was so nervous that he could not find sleep for weeks. He suffered from the most intense anxiety which bordered on insanity. I gave the person some of Foster's Kidney Tonic and he continued to use it. The appetite returned gradually, the anxiety disappeared (the headache left), and to day the sufferer, who had almost despaired, is enjoying excellent health.

Bern. Elzamp, Pastor.

Our Pamphlet for sufferers of nervous diseases will be sent free to any address, and was in a rather battered and damaged condition. Free of charge from us.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second-class matter.

ED. A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 27, 1890.

Death of Mrs. Reading.

Mrs. Margaret Reading, familiarly known as "Aunt Peggie," died Monday afternoon at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. H. C. Dunigan, at the advanced age of 83 years. She had enjoyed remarkable good health up to within a few days of her death, notwithstanding the fact that about a year ago she received a fall which broke one of her hips and fractured several ribs, but her strong constitution rallied and she had almost entirely recovered from the injury and gave promise of living many years yet.

She leaves two children, Mrs. Thos. P. Rodgers and Mr. William Reading, of Hill county, Texas, and several step children, one of whom is Mr. Colie Reading, of this city.

She was a pensioner of the war of 1812, her husband having been a soldier of that war.

The Constitutional Convention.

The body of men elected by the people of the State to remodel the present Constitution in some particulars that time and experience had demonstrated to be necessary, has been in session nearly four months and the end is not yet. Individually the members are as intelligent as could be found within the limits of the State, but as a body they seem to have accomplished but little. The people are, as a rule, disposed to criticize too severely a representative body, whether it be a Legislature or a Convention. They are unacquainted with the methods of business governing such bodies, and especially do they fail to consider the obstacles attending the transaction of business in such bodies. One hundred different opinions on every subject embraced in the Constitution, and as many different opinions on subjects that should never be incorporated into such an instrument, have to be met, combated, compromised or overcome in some way. When we call to mind how stubborn a thing one well grounded opinion is to overcome, the magnitude of overcoming ninety-nine out of every one hundred such specimens of obstinacy, becomes apparent.

But making all due allowances for such obstacles, it seems that there should be some limit beyond which the inventive genius of the present Convention should not venture. Of the many subjects embraced in the present Constitution, there was a demand on the part of the people for changes in less than a half a dozen respects, viz: Change in the method of voting, limitation of the Legislature to the passage of general laws only, limitation to the powers of local taxation in aid of corporations. The permanent location of the Capital at some point where it can forever be free from the fretful moods of a legislative body, and thereby invite the expenditure of such money in capital buildings as will provide for the needs of the officers and people of such an enlightened community as Kentucky of to-day and the bright future.

Without confining themselves to these subjects, the members have spared no part of the instrument from the spirit and disposition of change, indeed they have been "studious of change." The resolutions evidencing dissatisfaction with the present Constitution number hundreds, if not thousands. They do not stop at laying down a rule for the guidance of the people in their legislative capacity, but they venture to prescribe the details and methods to be pursued in deriving all benefits under the proposed Constitution. They should remember that principles are eternal while details and methods must change to meet the demands of a progressive people. The shoes that will fit a box of to-day will cramp his feet ten years hence, so it is the Convention should not say to the people you shall never wear shoes different from those we now furnish you, but should leave all details to be provided by the Legislatures of future years. Should this body reach too eagerly into the legislative stream after the fancied meat resting there, their experience may be similar to that of the dog who was not satisfied with the meat he held in his mouth, but in the effort to increase his possession saw his own meat sink beneath the waves. Such may be the fate of the present Convention when entrusted to the waves of public opinion.

Will Surely Go On.

The Kentucky Military Institute property has been purchased by the Kentucky Military Institute Co., who have a clear title to the property, which can not be affected by any litigation brought against the former owners of the place, and the school will certainly be kept up. The school is at present in charge of Col. D. F. Boyd, an eminent educator, who is building it up, and it is hoped soon to make it an institution our entire community will be proud of. The next session begins on the sixth of January, and will continue ten months.

Toe Mashed.

Mr. Richard Suter, one of the brakemen in the yard of the L. & N. Railroad, attempted to get upon a freight car which was being shifted in the yard, Monday afternoon, when he missed his footing, his right foot went down upon the rail and the truck passed over the end of his great toe, mashing the fleshy part of it off. The injury was dressed by Dr. E. E. Hume, who took the nail out at the root, but thinks he can save the toe.

The Fifth Attempt.

There was another attempt to burn the stable of Messrs. Gaines & Tanner, at the Capital City Machine Works, Monday evening. This is about the fifth time it has been set fire to, the last attempt to burn the building being made about a year ago and was successful in so far as to destroy about half the building and a lot of provender stored in it. The fire this time was discovered before any damage was done, and extinguished.

Engine House Signal.

When a fire breaks out near the engine house and the alarm is sent there instead of being turned in from the nearest box, an alarm of only three taps will be sounded upon the bell upon the tower, to inform the chief and runners, whose duty does not require them to stay constantly at the engine house, that there is a fire.

Christmas Wedding.

Mr. Ed. B. Emerson, of this city, and Miss Annie Stafford, of the Switzer neighborhood, were married at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. Thos. A. Joyce, on north St. Clair street, Rev. Geo. Darrist officiating.

Bought Mountain Land.

Charley Furr's Brother Dead.

Probable Speaker.

Hon. Albert B. Fall, grandson of the late Elder P. S. Fall, has been elected to the Legislature of New Mexico from the counties of Don Ana, Grant and Sierra, and will very probably be elected speaker of that body.

We Should Have Good Meat.

The weather for several weeks has been first-class for hog killing and there should be no complaint of spoiled meat among our farmers. Those who have it will have to charge it to defective curing.

Married Last June.

Mr. Wallace Steele, formerly telegraph operator at the L. & N. depot in this city, was married last June to Miss Clara Woodford, a wealthy young heiress of Bourbon county, at Aberdeen, Ohio, but the fact was kept secret until a few days ago, when it leaked out. For the past five months Mr. Steele had been employed as operator in Huntington, West Virginia, and Miss Woodford had resided with her widowed mother. Upon the fact of the marriage becoming known Mr. Steele resigned his place in Huntington and the couple now reside on the bride's farm, in Bourbon county.

Why is It?

With all the stores in the city full of Christmas goods, and in any of them a person could certainly have found most anything he wished for a Christmas present to a friend or a member of his family, any number of our people went or sent to other cities to make their purchases. And this thing is not confined to Christmas times but is almost an every day occurrence. Some people seem to think that an article purchased in Cincinnati or Louisville, at a little lower price than they can get it here, is much cheaper, notwithstanding the fact that they pay railroad fare to and from the city to make the purchase, or, if ordered by mail, the freight upon it here. And they lose sight of the fact that every dollar they send away from Frankfort is that much injury to the city. Our merchants complain of it, yet some of them do the very same thing, rather than patronize a home merchant in another line of trade. Why is it? Is this the way to build up your city? Many of our merchants send away to have their printing done, and then expect those who make their living by the art here in our city to deal with them. Why not encourage home enterprise by having your work done at home. You can get as neat work done in either of the printing offices here as in Louisville or Cincinnati, and if you don't want to patronize one, why go to the other. Don't go out of town with your work. We have just seen a job executed in a Louisville office—very neat job it is true, but it could have been as well and cheaply executed here. If it had been printed at home the proofs could have been submitted to the party who had it done, and all necessary changes and corrections made before it went to press, and some one saved the trouble of going over each copy and making changes or correcting the errors with a pen.

Gratifying to All.

Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste, and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 27, 1890.

Runaway Hoosiers.

Mr. Robert S. Taggart and Miss Carrie Long, a runaway couple from some point in Indiana, were married at the County Clerk's office, at 10 o'clock Monday night, by Judge Ben G. Williams. The parents of the groom opposed the match, hence the elopement.

Obscene Letter.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Con. McCarty arrested Frank Steele at Versailles on Wednesday, upon a charge of sending an obscene letter through the mails, preferred by Mrs. Mary T. White, of Woodford county. He was brought before Commissioner Ford and held under a bond of five hundred dollars to appear on Monday for an examining trial. The letter has been filed by Mrs. White with her affidavit for the warrant, and the case will create considerable stir when it comes to trial.

Eye put Out.

Mr. Geo. B. Thomson was repairing a pair of steps, at his home on Second street, Monday, and his little boy, Robbie, was standing near looking on, when the nail Mr. Thomson was driving broke in two, a part of it flying and striking little Robbie in one of his eyes, destroying the sight. The little fellow has been peculiarly unfortunate of late, for one day last week he fell down stairs at the City School building and bruised his face very badly. He was also a favorite music pupil of the late Prof. Mauer and the Professor was just beginning to give him his usual lesson upon the violin when stricken with death.

The Midland Extension.

Judge Mann has called the Magistrates to convene Saturday, for the purpose of voting on the question of granting an extension of the terms of the subscription of the Kentucky Midland, one year from January 1st. The enabling act passed at the last session of the General Assembly, makes it a condition of the extension that the company shall in no event sell out to the Kentucky Central or its assigns.

Justice to the Little Rock and North Middletown precincts demands that this road be completed, and it most certainly will not be completed unless more time is granted. This will be the last road to ask for a subscription in the next hundred years, and we believe that the people generally concede the fact that further time should be granted.—Bourbon News.

A son of Mr. M. D. Pusser, a merchant of Gibraltar, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism for a year or more, as to be unable to work or go to school. His father concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm on the boy. It soon cured him and he has since walked one and a half miles to school and back every school day. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 13-1m Bald Knob.

Mrs. Brumley and daughter, of Louisville, visited Mr. L. W. Shackelford, Mrs. Brumley's brother, last week.

Mr. Henry Rogers visited Mr. Joe Hamilton, at Benson station, last Saturday.

School at this place has closed until after the holidays.

I would like very much to make the acquaintance of the Middlesex Girl. I will go with Mr. Austin bird hunting next time; perhaps I will meet her then. He has such good luck bird hunting, especially on the hill.

Let us see: Two women had 30 chickens each, which they took to market. They agreed to divide equally the proceeds of their sale.

One sold her chickens 2 for a dollar, getting for her 30 chickens $15.00.

The other sold her chickens 3 for a dollar, getting for her 30 chickens $30.00.

This made $25, realized for the 60 chickens.

The merchant called on to divide the money said:

You sold your 30 chickens 2 for a dollar and you sold yours 3 for a dollar, that makes 60 chickens at the rate of 5 for $2.00. Well 5 into 60 goes 12 times, twice 12 is 24, that makes $24 your chickens have brought.

But as shown above, the women actually had $35 in pocket. And yet the merchant's figures were right. Do figures lie?

[You are wrong. The merchant's figures were not correct, because he makes one woman sell 3 every time the other sells 2, although they had exactly the same number: or, in other words 30 chickens are sold at 33 cts, while 24 are sold at 50 cts, but the example says 30 were sold at each price.—Ed.]

Fat Man's Club.

The "Fat Men's Club." This is the title of a musical comedy given at the Academy of Music last night by J. C. Stewart and his company before a large audience. First and foremost, of course, comes J. C. Stewart, whose mammoth size does not prevent his being the life of the play. His comicallities kept the audience in a roar, and his efforts at fun-making were ably seconded by the company which is far above the usual fare aggregation, especially in the way of specialties. The singing of the female members of the company was especially good, and was encored at every possible opportunity. The entire efforts of the company are directed towards creating laughter, and the success is beyond a doubt. If you have seen the "Fat Men's Club" will bring about a cure.—The Landmark, Norfolk.

At the Opera House, Wednesday, December 31.

It always cures scrofula, if taken before some vital part is so seriously impaired as to render a cure impossible. It relieves mercurial rheumatism, and cures all sorts of eruptions, pimples, blotches, &c., by eliminating the poison from the blood. S. S. The Wonderful Tower.

The highest structure in the world is Eiffel Tower, at Paris, 1,000 feet high. But the great discovery of Dr. Franklin Miles is certain to tower far above it in promoting human happiness and health. This wonderful nerve medicine builds up worn-out systems, cures fits, spasms, headache, nervous prostration, dizziness, sleeplessness, monthly pains, sexual troubles, etc. Mrs. John R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., gained 30 pounds a month while taking it. SLEEP IN PEACE

BY USING

PRATT'S KILLER

FOR BED BUGS.

This preparation is superior to all others for the following reasons: It kills the bugs instantly. It effectually destroys their eggs, therefore it is only necessary to use it once or twice during the season.

It possesses advantages over insect powders inasmuch as it can be used in places which they cannot reach.

Its odor is agreeable, and it is warranted not to injure carpets, linen or furniture.

No fatal effects can result from its use, as it contains no poison, which fact should give it a place in every household.

Sold in large bottles at 25 cents each. For sale by W. H. AVERILL at wholesale and retail.

Row on the Train.

A lot of drunken men on train No. 21 on the L. & N. Wednesday afternoon, got into a row and smashed the glass of one of the doors of the front car, when Conductor Throckmorton, who was in charge, promptly stopped the train and was about to put the party off, but they cooled down and promised to behave themselves when he carried them on to their destination.

Not Yet.

We have collected the following: Mr. Editor—The report is current in this neighborhood that one John Isbell, who was sent from this county to the Penitentiary for horse stealing, was killed while trying to escape. As the ROUNDABOUT has not mentioned it we would like it if it will give, through its columns, the desired information.

A CITIZEN OF WARREN CO.

Isbell was not killed in attempting to escape from the Kentucky Penitentiary, and is now within the walls of that institution very much alive.

Thousands Poisoned.

In a recent work on Heart Disease, Dr. Franklin Miles—the noted specialist—gives many new and startling facts. Thousands of people are slowly poisoning themselves, weakening their hearts by the use of tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol. These are heart whips, causing it to beat rapidly, thus gradually wearing it out, producing shortness of breath when exercising, pains in the side and shoulder, hungry and faint spells. Finally heart failure and sudden death. For weakened and irritated hearts the press everywhere highly recommend the New Heart Cure discovered by Dr. Franklin Miles, which is for sale at J. W. Gayle's drug store.

HUDSON HUMPHRIES & CASSELL!

Farmdale.

The schools of Miss Pattie, at Pur-rington, and Mrs. Jones, at Fox Gap, drew to a close with a union Xmas tree on the 24th. The little ones of both schools were made happy by a Xmas tree in their name. They opened the evening exercises with a song, which was quite well rendered.
Little Ally Bashford's description of "St. Nick and His Visit" was good, indeed, creating a deal of merriment.
Among the children, Little Miss Alma Tichenor's rendering of "Nobody's Child" was quite pathetic, indeed. There were many songs and recitations from each school, including several dialogues, which reflected much credit on both scholars and teachers. Then Santa Claus appeared on the scene and distributed the various presents, which all enjoyed immensely, as the presents were plentiful. All left, feeling quite happy, as each felt as he had won favor in his best girl's estimation.
Wishing each and every one a merry
Xmas, including ROUNDABOUT. X.

[DELAIED LETTER.]

Mrs. J. M. S. Darnell is visiting in Cincinnati.

The wife of Mr. T. W. Hackney, of Four Corners, died on the 6th inst. of consumption.

Mr. William Winstead contemplates returning to his home in Tuscumbia, Alabama, during the

The Press announces the death of the famous Tobacco Warehouse few weeks, the monster quietly subsided.

Will the Con. Con. do anything toward making the public roads the property of the people rather than of corporations and private individuals.

A gentleman related to us, a few days since, an incident in the history of John C. Breckenridge, illustrating the difference between the courtesy shown to witnesses in court by great lawyers, and the unmanly advantages seized by Jack Legs. It is worth the attention of the young lawyers of today. Breckenridge inherited a splendid physique, a giant intellect, dauntless courage and the natural instincts of a gentleman. In the halls of Congress, the field of battle, or in heated political contests, he never forgot the consideration due a gentleman, nor the courtesy due from one, but it is a little strange that one of such parts could not be led by the and/or of contest, lust of gain, desire for renown, or the jealousy of rivalry to do so in the trial of a case before the court. The great advocate was ever true to his client and his client's cause, but above all discourtesy, chicanery, and trickery. Shrewd and searching in his examination of a witness, he never forgot the rights of that witness.
On one occasion, when engaged in a very hotly contested suit, a young man was placed upon the stand whose testimony was very damaging to the General's cause. Under the flaming fire of his cross-examination the witness became confused and flatly contradicted himself. Unlucky Wight! Here was Breckenridge's grand opportunity.
We have all heard how even the ordinary lawyers can take advantage of such a slip. What names he can call, how utterly degraded he can make the poor witness seem and feel.
Think then, what destruction this giant intellect, blessed with the silver tongue of oratory would effect when turned in that direction. After looking calmly at the witness, the great lawyer said: "Gentlemen of the jury, there is a discrepancy in the testimony, but the young gentleman is evidently timid and confused. I do not wish to take advantage of the timidity or confusion of one who is evidently trying to tell the truth." Then calling the attention of the witness to the discrepancy, he allowed him to explain, and the Jack Legs and other habits of the court-room went into open-mouthed wonder, utterly dumfounded at the idea that a great lawyer should have the instincts of a true gentleman.

Harry Shaw is enjoying Christmas in his new house, for which he returns his grateful thanks to Mr.
Hensley and the Royal Insurance Company for their promptness in paying the insurance upon his house burned last April, and says as the winter days go by he feels that had it not been for this he would be without a home. He advises everyone to insure their property. He also wishes to return his thanks to Mr. Joe Tyler, foreman, and Messrs. John and Ed.
Shroyck, James Toppas, Newbold Golds, the faithful carpenters who worked upon it, and to Squire Jas. A.
Lyon, who built the good drawing chimneys, all of whom he commends to the public. He also says Messrs.
Wakenfield & Choate keep constantly on hand good-fitting doors and windows, and are square men to deal with. Should either or both of them become candidates for next Governor of Kentucky he would feel bound to vote for them both.

BULLDOGS. Forks of Elkhorh.

Last Thursday, Christmas day, was observed in regular old time style—
a heavy snow storm prevailing all day.

Our school closed for the holidays
last Tuesday. The treat of confections spread by the teachers for the enjoyment of their pupils was fully appreciated. The trustees, Messrs. J. F. Goddard and George Brock, were present and added very much to the occasion by timely remarks, commending both teachers and pupils for past proficiency, and encouraging each to renewed diligence. Mr. W. C. Bedford, the other trustee, was unavoidably absent.

A Christmas tree was erected in each of the two churches in our town this week for the benefit of Sunday-schools. The young people enjoyed the events with hearts full of love and thanks. Also in like manner at Providence Church.

Regular services at Buck Run tomorrow at 11 o'clock a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

A series of meetings will begin at the Christian Church to-morrow evening at 6:30 o'clock, continuing probably through the week.

The Farmers and Laborers' Union
in this place is in a progressive condition.

The school children, as usual, remembered their teachers in the presentation of sundry useful articles and Christmas gifts, and we take this method of returning heartfelt thanks for same. May heaven's richest blessing attend them in all their wandering and down the road.

Mr. L. P. Thompson, with his family, left last Tuesday for Frankfort,
where they will reside.

Something for the New Year.
The world renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for over a third of a century as a stom-achic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's. This valuable medical treatment is published by the Hostetter Company, Philadelphia, 12, Market Street, and immediate supervision, employing to hands in that department. It is running about 11 months in the year on this work, and the sales of same for 1901 will be more than ten millions, printed in the English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Belge-
and Spanish languages, and is a critical of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and human testimony, like as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Detailed information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, &c., which can be depended on for correctness.
